15D Effect of shareholding in contravention of this Part

- (1) Where a share in a banking institution or controlling company—
 - (a) is held by a person in contravention of section 15A or 15B; or
 - (b) has been allotted, issued or transferred to a person, or registered in a person's name, in contravention of section 15C(1);

then—

- (c) no person shall, either personally or by proxy, cast a vote attached to the share nor shall any person receive a dividend payable on the share; and
- (d) the Registrar may, subject to this section, require the person to divest himself or herself of the share.

(2) For so long as a shareholder of a banking institution or controlling company fails or refuses to comply with a request in terms of section 15C(4), he or she shall not, either personally or by proxy, cast a vote attached to the share nor receive a dividend payable on the share.

(3) The validity of any resolution adopted by a banking institution or controlling company shall not be affected by a vote cast in contravention of subsection (1)(c) or (2), if the resolution was adopted by the requisite majority of votes which were validly cast.

(4) A dividend referred to in subsection (1) or (2) shall accrue to the banking institution or controlling company concerned.

(5) Before requiring a shareholder to divest himself or herself of a share in terms of subsection (1), the Registrar shall inform—

- (a) the shareholder; and
- (b) the person from whom he or she acquired the share, if that person is readily identifiable; and
- (c) the banking institution or controlling company concerned;

of his or her reasons for requiring the shareholder to do so, and shall give all those persons an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(6) If a person fails or refuses without just cause to divest himself or herself of a share after having been required to do so in terms of subsection (5), the Registrar may by written notice to the person declare the transaction by which he or she acquired the share to be void, whereupon the transaction shall become void and the person shall be divested of all his or her rights in the share.

(7) Subject to section 73, a shareholder who has been required to divest himself or herself of any shares in terms of subsection (5) and who fails without just cause to comply with the requirement within a reasonable period shall be subject to the penalties referred to in section 15B(8).

15E Divestment of shares to prevent undue influence by shareholder

(1) If the Registrar is satisfied that a shareholder of a banking institution or controlling company has unlawfully or improperly influenced a decision of the board of the institution or company or any of its principal officers, or has attempted so to influence such a decision, the Registrar may, subject to this section, by written notice require the shareholder to divest himself or herself of all or any of his or her shares in the banking institution or controlling company concerned.

(2) Before requiring a shareholder to divest himself or herself of any shares in terms of subsection (1), the Registrar shall inform the shareholder and the banking institution or controlling company concerned, in writing, of his or her reasons for requiring the shareholder to do so and shall give the shareholder and the institution or company an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(3) Subject to section 73, a shareholder who has been required to divest himself or herself of any shares in terms of subsection (1) and who fails without just cause to comply with the requirement within the first seven days of the period of one hundred and eighty-one days referred to in paragraph (a) below, shall —

(a) be liable for a civil penalty of fifty United States dollars (or the maximum monetary figure specified from time to time for level four, whichever is the lesser amount) for each day the shareholder remains in default, not exceeding a period of one hundred and eighty-one days:

Provided that the Registrar shall have power to waive the payment or refund the whole or part of any penalty prescribed under this paragraph if he or she is satisfied that the contravention was not wilful, or not due to the want of reasonable care;

(b) if the shareholder continues to be in default after the period specified in paragraph (a), be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

15F Restriction on right to control banking institution

(1) No person other than—

(a) a registered financial institution; or

(b) a body corporate which conducts business similar to that of a banking institution in a foreign country and which has been approved by the Registrar; or may exercise control over a registered banking institution.

(c) a registered controlling company;

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person shall be deemed to exercise control over a banking institution if—

(a) where the person is a body corporate, the banking institution is its subsidiary; or

(b) whether the person is an individual or a body corporate, the person together with any associates or close relatives—

(i) is entitled to exercise more than fifty per centum of the voting rights in respect of any class of issued shares of the banking institution; or

(ii) is entitled or has the power to determine the appointment of a majority of the directors of the banking institution; or

(iii) holds shares in the banking institution whose total nominal value represents more than fifty per centum of the nominal value of all the issued shares of the banking institution unless, due to limitations on the voting rights attached to the shares, the person and any associates or close relatives, voting together, cannot decisively influence the outcome of the voting at any general meeting of the banking institution's shareholders.

(3) Subsection (2)(b)(i) and (iii) shall not apply in respect of shares held temporarily by an underwriter pending their acquisition by other persons.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b)(ii), if a person's appointment as director of a banking institution follows necessarily from his or her appointment as a director of another company or body corporate, that company or body corporate shall be deemed to have power to determine his or her appointment as a director of the banking institution.

(5) If for any reason it is unclear whether or not a person exercises control over a banking institution, the Registrar may by written notice to the person and the banking institution concerned, determine whether or not he or she exercises such control:

Provided that, before making such a determination, the Registrar shall give the person and the banking institution an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(6) Where the Registrar determines under subsection (5) that a shareholder is a person who exercises control over a banking institution in contravention of this section, such determination shall constitute a requirement by the Registrar that the shareholder divest himself or herself of the shares concerned in compliance with section 15D(1)(d).

(7) Subject to section 73, a shareholder who is required to divest himself or herself of any shares in terms of subsection (6) and who fails without just cause to comply with the requirement within the first seven days of the period of one hundred and eighty-one days referred to in paragraph (a) below, shall —

and

- (b) if the shareholder continues to be in default after the period specified in paragraph (a), be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

- (f) generally, the applicant will comply with such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable to it;

the Registrar shall register the applicant as a controlling company.

- (b) considers that it would not be in the public interest to register the applicant as a controlling company;

he or she shall refuse to register the applicant concerned:

Provided that—

- (i) before refusing to register an applicant, the Registrar shall notify the applicant, in writing, that he or she proposes to refuse the application and of the reasons for doing so, and shall afford the applicant an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter;

(2) Before amending a controlling company's registration in terms of subsection (1), otherwise than at the company's request, the Registrar shall notify the company, in writing, of the nature of the amendment he or she proposes to make and of the reasons for wishing to make it, and shall give the company an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(3) If the Registrar refuses to make an amendment in terms of subsection (1) at the company's request, he or she shall, within ten days after reaching the decision, notify the company, in writing, of the decision and of the reasons for it.

15J Cancellation of registration of controlling company

Provided that, if the Registrar believes on reasonable grounds that it is not possible so to notify the company at its registered office, the Registrar shall publish a notice in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the company's registered office is situated, stating that its registration will be cancelled unless the company lodges an appeal with the Minister in terms of section 73 within thirty days from the date of publication of the notice in the Gazette.

(6) Where the registration of a controlling company has been cancelled in terms of this section, the company shall without delay relinquish its control over any banking institution, and shall comply with any directions the Registrar may give it for that purpose and, with respect to any divestment of shares required by such relinquishment, the provisions of section 15D(1) and (6) shall apply as if the Registrar had given the company the requisite notices of divestment in terms of those provisions on the day of the cancellation.

(2) Without derogation from subsection (1), the directors and principal officers of all banking institutions and controlling companies shall, in the performance of their functions as such, observe any written prudential standards issued from time to time by the Reserve Bank.

 - (i) reasonable notice is given to everyone whose interest or rights will be affected by the acquisition; and
 - (ii) fair and adequate compensation is paid within a reasonable time after the acquisition; and
 - (iii) if the acquisition is contested, an application is made to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order authorising or confirming the acquisition; and

(4) Where an appeal is noted against a decision of the High Court in an application referred to in this section, the Supreme Court shall ensure that, where possible, it delivers judgment in the appeal within thirty days after the appeal was filed in accordance with rules of court.

(5) Notwithstanding any other law, if an appeal is noted against a decision of the High Court in an application referred to in this section, no court shall set aside the decision of the Reserve Bank made pursuant to a bank resolution plan without the consent of the Reserve Bank, unless the court is satisfied that the decision was made corruptly or in bad faith:

Provided that this subsection shall not prevent a court from awarding fair and adequate compensation to any person who has suffered loss as a result of the decision.

(6) Pending the determination of an application referred to in this section or any appeal in relation thereto, the Reserve Bank may take any of the measures referred to in section 52A(6) or any other formal supervisory or enforcement action against the problem banking institution concerned in the interests of its creditors or depositors or in the public interest.

(7) Where a problem bank notice is confirmed by the court in terms of this section and the bank resolution plan in relation to it proposes to place the problem banking institution concerned under liquidation, it shall not be necessary to issue a separate notice of liquidation in terms of section 57.

Provided that if the new bank resolution plan is materially at variance with the one submitted in connection with an application in terms of section 52B, the Reserve Bank shall seek the leave of the court that confirmed the application to depart from the original bank resolution plan, and the court may make any directions on the matter that it thinks fit.

(4) For a period of ninety days after a curator has taken control of a problem banking institution under a bank resolution plan, no proceedings may be commenced against the institution by its creditors.

53 Placing of banking institution under curatorship

(1) Where—

- (a) the Reserve Bank considers that a banking institution is in an unsound financial condition and is not operating in accordance with sound administrative and accounting practices and procedures, adhering to proper risk-management policies; or
- (b) a banking institution has failed to comply with the minimum financial requirements prescribed in terms of this Act and the Reserve Bank considers that it is unlikely to comply with them unless it is placed in curatorship;

the Reserve Bank, after consulting the Minister and the Deposit Protection Corporation, may issue a written direction to the institution placing the institution under the management of a curator for such period, whether definite or indefinite, as in the Reserve Bank’s opinion will permit the institution’s financial condition to be remedied or resolved.

[Subsection amended by Act 7 of 2011 and Act 12 of 2015]

(2) Before issuing a direction in terms of subsection (1) the Reserve Bank shall inform the banking institution concerned of its intention to do so and its reasons for forming that intention, and shall afford the institution a reasonable opportunity to make representations in the matter:

Provided that the Reserve Bank need not comply with this subsection if—

- (a) in the Reserve Bank’s opinion, to do so would permit the banking institution concerned or any other person to dispose of any of the institution’s assets or take any other action that would prejudice the institution’s creditors or depositors; or
- (b) the appointment of a curator was recommended by an investigator in his report sent to the Reserve Bank in terms of section fifty.

[Subsection as amended by section 7 of Act 1 of 2005 and Act 12 of 2015]

(4) As soon as possible after issuing a direction in terms of subsection (1) the Reserve Bank shall cause it to be published in the Gazette and in one or more issues of a newspaper circulating in the area in which the banking institution concerned conducts banking business.

(5) The Reserve Bank may at any time amend a direction issued in terms of subsection (1), and subsections (2) and (4) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to any such amendment.

54 Effect of placing banking institution under curatorship

(1) The issue of a direction in terms of section fifty-three shall have the effect of suspending the powers of every director, officer and shareholder of the banking institution concerned, except to the extent that the curator may permit them to exercise their powers.

(2) With effect from the date on which a direction under section fifty-three was issued—

- (a) all legal proceedings and the execution of all writs, summonses and other legal process against the banking institution concerned shall be stayed and not be instituted or proceeded with unless the High Court has granted leave; and

- (d) ensure that proper accounting records are kept and proper annual financial statements are prepared in relation to the operations of the banking institution concerned; and

- (f) examine the affairs and transactions of the banking institution concerned before it was placed under curatorship in order to ascertain whether any past or present director, officer or employee of the institution —
 - (i) has contravened or appears to have contravened any provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) has committed or appears to have committed any offence; or
 - (iii) is or appears to be personally liable to pay damages or compensation to the institution or is personally liable for any of the institution's liabilities;

and, within three months after the institution was placed under curatorship, shall submit to the Reserve Bank a report containing full particulars of any such contravention, offence or liability; and

- (g) one year after the banking institution was placed under curatorship and thereafter at six-monthly intervals, report to the Reserve Bank, in writing, as to whether or not, in his opinion, it is in the interests of the institution's creditors and depositors that the institution should remain under curatorship:

Provided that, if at any time he is of the opinion that continued curatorship will not enable the banking institution to become a successful concern, he shall advise the Reserve Bank accordingly.

(2) A curator shall have the following powers, to the extent that he is authorized to exercise them in terms of the direction under which he was appointed—

- (a) to suspend or reduce, as from the date on which the banking institution concerned was placed under curatorship or any subsequent date, the right of the institution's creditors to claim or receive interest on any money owing to them by the institution;

 - (ii) the institution lacks the necessary funds to meet its obligations under any such agreement; or

- (iii) it would not otherwise be in the interests of the institution to abide by the agreement;
- (d) to convene from time to time, in such manner as he thinks fit, a meeting of creditors of the banking institution concerned for the purpose of establishing the nature and extent of the institution's indebtedness to them and consulting them on decisions taken by him in the course of managing the institution's affairs, to the extent that the creditors' interests may be affected by those decisions;
- (e) to negotiate with any individual creditor of the banking institution concerned with a view to a final settlement of the creditor's affairs with the institution;
- (f) to make and carry out, in the course of his management of the banking institution concerned, any decision which in terms of the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03] would have been required to be made by way of a special resolution contemplated in section 135 of that Act;
- (g) to cancel any lease of movable or immovable property entered into by the banking institution concerned before it was placed under curatorship:

Provided that, notwithstanding subsection (2) of section fifty-four, a claim for damages in respect of such a cancellation may be instituted against the institution after the expiry of one year from the date of the cancellation or after such shorter period as the High Court may permit;

- (h) to dispose, by public auction, tender or individual negotiation, of any asset of the banking institution concerned, including —

- (i) to cancel any guarantee issued by the banking institution concerned before the date on which it was placed under curatorship, other than a guarantee that the institution is required to make good within a period of thirty days after that date:

Provided that, notwithstanding subsection (2) of section fifty-four, a claim for damages in respect of such a cancellation may be instituted against the institution after the expiry of one year from the date of the cancellation or after such shorter period as the High Court may permit;

- (j) generally, to take any action necessary for the administration or operation of the banking institution concerned, including the sale or closure of any branch, agency, or other office of the institution and, subject to any other law, the dismissal of any of its officers or employees.

(3) A curator shall record the nature of, and the reasons for, each act performed by him in the course of his curatorship, and such records shall be examined as part of the normal audit of the records of the banking institution concerned.

(3a) Any person alleging to be a creditor of a banking institution under curatorship may, upon furnishing such written proof to the curator as will satisfy the curator that the person is able to prove a claim against the banking institution, and upon payment of the prescribed fee (if any), request that any specific report or every report made by the curator under subsection (1) (e), (f) and (g) be availed to him or her as soon as practicable after the curator avails it to the Reserve Bank, and the curator shall comply with such request.

[Subsection inserted by Act 12 of 2015]

(4) Any person who is aggrieved by any decision or action taken by a curator may appeal against it to the Reserve Bank.

(5) An appeal in terms of subsection (4) shall be made in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.

56 Freezing of deposits and investments of banking institution under curatorship
