STOCK MARKET DEVELOPMENTS

The slowdown in economic growth in China, European financial sector challenges, weak global demand and low international commodity prices resulted in mixed trading in major global stock markets in February 2016. Japanese and European markets registered losses, while US markets traded largely unchanged.

During the same period, major African stock markets recovered from the previous month's losses. Stock market gains were recorded in Egypt, 2.6%; Kenya, 2.9%; Nigeria, 1.3%; and South Africa, 0.6%.

On the Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE), however, the industrial and mining indices continued on a downward trend during the period under review. The industrial index fell by 3.4% to 99.5 points, in February 2016, on account of losses in highly capitalised counters. Similarly, the mining index also declined by 2% to 19.14 points, during the same period.

Trading volumes increased to 91.2 million shares in February 2016, from 61.9 million shares in January 2016. In tandem, market turnover increased from US$10.4 million in January 2016, to US$57.1 million in February 2016.

The ZSE market capitalisation stood at US$2 694.9 million in February 2016, down from US$2 790.4 million in January 2016. This was on account of losses in blue chip counters.

MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

The annual broad money supply growth rate increased to 9.94% in February 2016, from 9.55% in January 2016. On a month-on-month basis, broad money supply increased by 0.3% to US$4 768.9 million in February 2016, from US$4 754.4 million recorded in January 2016.

Source: Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe, 2016

The growth in annual broad money was largely on account of a 22.4% and 21.6% increase in demand and savings deposits, respectively. Long and short term deposits, however, declined by 9.4% and 6.9%, respectively.

In terms of proportions, demand deposits accounted for 51.9% of total deposits; long term, 19.1%; short term, 15%; and savings deposits, 14.1%.

In terms of proportions the utilisation of private sector credit was as follows: asset purchases, 40.9%; inventory build-up, 34.5%; consumer durables, 14.8%; capital investment, 4.9% and vehicle purchases, 3.5%.

INFLATION OUTTURN

Annual Inflation

The annual headline inflation, which had shown some rising trend in the last quarter of 2015, decelerated to -2.2% in February 2016. This was due to declines of 4.04% and 1.4 % in food and non-food inflation, respectively.

Negative inflation in the economy continued to be underpinned by the depreciation of the South African rand; decline in international oil price; waning domestic demand; as well as continued downward correction in both food and non-food prices, among other factors.

Source: ZIMSTAT, 2016

Year-on-year, food inflation declined to -4.04% in February 2016, from -3.96% in January 2016. Food inflation was largely weighed down by declines in the prices of bread and cereals; milk, cheese and eggs; oils and fats; and vegetables.

Competition from cheap imported food products, especially from South Africa, coupled with waning effective demand, continued to depress local prices.

Annual non-food inflation decelerated from -1.3% in January 2016, to -1.4% in February 2016. This was attributable to declines in housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels; furniture, household equipment and maintenance; transport; and clothing and footwear.

Monthly Inflation

The month-on-month inflation rate stood at -0.1% in February 2016, up from -0.05% in January 2016. This was underpinned by a significant reduction in the prices of non-food items such as liquid fuels, gas and lubricants for personal transport equipment.

Outlook

Notwithstanding the anticipated increase in electricity tariffs and the drought induced increases in food prices, the country’s inflation is expected to largely remain subdued.

The domestic factors that may sustain the downward pressure on prices include the general downward correction of prices in the economy and constrained effective demand. On the other hand, the sustained depreciation of the South African rand against the US dollar, as well as low international crude oil prices, are likely to continue exerting downward pressure on domestic prices.

NATIONAL PAYMENTS SYSTEM

Zimbabwe Electronic Transfer Settlement System (ZETSS)

The value of transactions processed through the Real Time Gross Settlement System (RTGS) increased by 1.8% to US$3.45 billion in February 2016, from US$3.39 billion recorded in January 2016. Concomitantly, the volume of RTGS transactions registered an increase of 12%, from 132 260 to 148 416 in the same period.

Mobile and Internet Based Transactions

The total value of mobile and internet based transactions increased to US$557.19 million in February 2016, from US$556.6 million in January 2016.

Card Based Transactions

Card based transactions decreased from US$468.9 million in January 2016, to US$450.9 million in February 2016.

Cheque Transactions

The value of cheque transactions rose by 7% to US$11.9 million in February 2016, from US$11.1 million in January 2016.
