OVERVIEW

The month under analysis saw a decline in annual headline inflation from 87.60% in March 2023 to 75.17% in April 2023. Month-on-month inflation, however, rose to 2.36% in the reporting month, from 0.13% in the preceding month.

On a month-on-month basis, broad money increased by 12.62% in April 2023, compared to 9.12% recorded in March 2023. The growth largely reflected increases of ZW$279.72 billion and ZW$122.91 billion in foreign currency accounts and local currency deposits, respectively.

During the month under analysis, international commodity prices for gold, platinum, palladium, nickel, and Brent crude oil firmed, while copper prices retreated, in part, on account of a weaker dollar.

The country's total merchandise trade for the month under review stood at US$1,253.1 million, from US$1,259.8 million recorded in the previous month. This was on account of a decline in imports which was more than offset by the increase in exports. The country's monthly net external trade position narrowed from a deficit of US$229.2 million in March 2023, to a deficit of US$143.8 million in April 2023.

The Zimbabwe Stock Exchange (ZSE) was bullish for the fourth consecutive month. As a result, the All Share, Top 10, Top 15, Medium Cap and Small Cap indices registered gains. The mining index however, lost 2.59% to close at 37 359.78 points.

The value of transactions processed through the National Payment Systems (NPS) rose by 4.0% to ZW$6.28 trillion during the reporting month, from ZW$6.04 trillion recorded in March 2023. NPS transaction volumes registered a 2.85% decrease to close at 64.96 million in April 2023.

INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY PRICE DEVELOPMENTS

In the month of April 2023, the monthly average prices for gold, platinum, palladium, nickel, and Brent crude oil firmed on the global market. Copper prices, however, retreated, during the same month. The rise in prices was underpinned by a weaker U.S dollar, which made greenback denominated commodities cheaper to holders of other currencies.

Precious Metals

Gold

Gold prices increased by 4.66%, from US$1,910.66 per ounce in the previous month to US$1,999.73 per ounce in the reporting month. The prices rose as the U.S dollar and Treasury yields retreated, thereby prompting investors to shift to the precious metal as an alternative investment asset.

Platinum

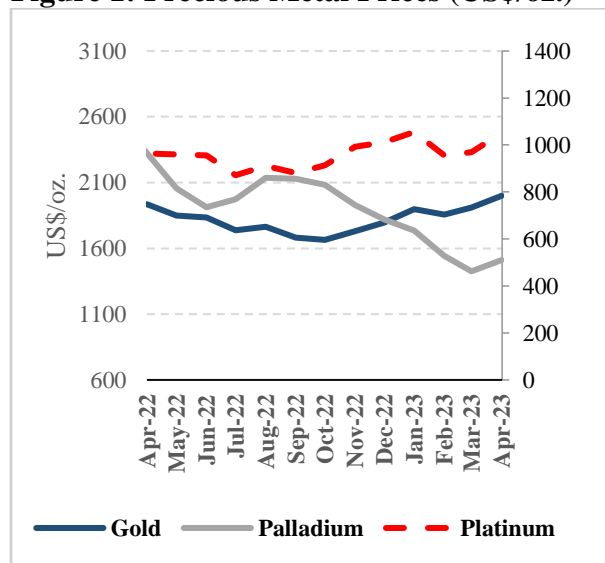

Platinum prices also extended gains, rising by 8.40%, from a monthly average of US$969.89 per ounce in March 2023 to US$1,051.36 per ounce, during the month under analysis. Prices rose amid tight global supply, particularly in South Africa, and on rising demand in China, the largest consumer of platinum.

Palladium

Palladium prices rebounded by 6.08%, from a monthly average of US$1,425.59 per ounce recorded in the preceding month to US$1,512.19 per ounce recorded in April 2023. The price increase was underpinned by growth prospects in the tech sector which relies heavily on palladium for the manufacture of electronics. In addition, a weaker U.S dollar as well as falling global inventories also spurred prices. Figure 1 shows the precious metal price developments for the period from April 2022 to April 2023.

Base Metals

Copper

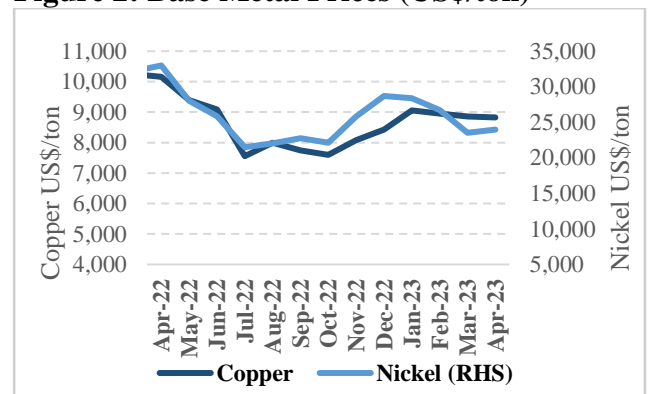

Copper prices remained bearish, sliding by a marginal 0.38%, from US$8,860.50 per tonne in the previous month to US$8,826.94 per tonne in April 2023. Prices were weighed down by rising global supplies on account of the ramping up of production in newly opened mines in Peru, one of the world's largest producers of the red metal.

Nickel

Meanwhile, nickel prices rose by 1.98%, from a monthly average of US$23,507.13 per tonne recorded in March 2023 to US$23,973.61 per tonne, during the month under review. The increase was attributed to tight global supply and the improvement in demand in China, the world's top metal's consumer. Figure 2 shows developments in base metal prices for the period from April 2022 to April 2023.

Brent Crude Oil

Brent crude oil prices rose as cooling U.S. inflation spurred hopes that the US Federal Reserve was getting closer to ending the cycle of interest-rate hikes. Furthermore, oil prices surged following a surprise announcement by the Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries group to cut oil production by two million barrels a day, during the month under review. Accordingly, Brent crude oil prices increased from a monthly average of US$79.23 per barrel in March 2023, to US$83.31 per barrel during the month of April 2023, reflective of a 5.15% change.

MERCHANDISE TRADE DEVELOPMENTS

In the month under review, total merchandise trade declined to US$1,253.1 million, from the previous month's out-turn of US$1,259.8 million. The slight dip was on account of the decline in imports which was more than offset by the increase in exports. Total merchandise trade in April 2023 was higher than the US$1,223.4 million recorded in the corresponding period in 2022. Figure 4 shows monthly developments in the country's merchandise trade for 2022 and 2023.

Merchandise Exports

The improvement in exports was driven by increases in exports of gold and tobacco, during the month under analysis. In the month under review, exports were, however, 5.6% lower than in the corresponding month in 2022. Notably, export earnings from PGMs were subdued, owing to tapering commodity prices on the global markets.

Table 1 shows development in the country's exports for the months of March 2023 and April 2023.

On a month-on-month basis, broad money increased by 12.62% in April 2023, compared to 9.12% recorded in March 2023. The growth largely reflected increases of ZW$279.72 billion and ZW$122.91 billion in foreign currency accounts (FCAs) and local currency deposits, respectively.

During the month under review, domestic claims increased by 11.03%, compared to 18.10% recorded in the previous month. On an annual basis, broad money registered an increase of 436.01%. This was a slowdown from 442.41% recorded in March 2023. The foreign currency component of broad money, which explains the bulk of the increase, rose by 611.14%, while the local currency component increased by 292.69%.

The growth in foreign currency deposits from ZW$302.16 billion in April 2022 to ZW$2,148.79 billion in April 2023, was largely attributable to valuation changes related to the movement in the exchange rate. Over the year to April 2023, the inter-bank market exchange rate depreciated from ZW$159.35 per US$ to ZW$1,047.44 per US$.

Annual increase in broad money largely reflected changes in net claims on Government and credit to the private sector of ZW$707.34 billion (692.51%) and ZW$1,541.53 billion (419.83%), respectively.

Credit to the private sector was mainly channelled to agriculture and households, which received 24.31% and 21.58% of the total credit, respectively. Credit to the private sector was largely utilized for recurrent expenditures, 31.51%; inventory build-up, 29.68%; and fixed capital investments, 16.79%.

VFEX Market Capitalization

Despite the bearish sentiment that characterized the VFEX during the month under review, market capitalization added 6.62% to US$1.06 billion, compared to US$0.99 billion recorded in March 2023.

The increase in VFEX capitalization reflects the listing of Africa Sun Limited, which added the number of outstanding shares onto the market. The number of trading counters also increased to ten, compared to nine in the prior month.

INFLATION OUTTURN

Annual Inflation

Headline inflation slowed down from 87.60% in March 2023 to 75.2% in April 2023. This was attributable to the tight monetary and fiscal policy stance that is aimed at stabilising the economy and contain inflation pressures.

However, increases in parallel market foreign exchange premiums due to increased demand for store of value purposes and speculative prices continue to drive inflation.

Annual food inflation fell by 26.27 percentage points to 101.65% in April 2023, from 127.92% in March 2023. Year-on-year, non-food inflation also decelerated from 65.13% in March 2023 to 59.97% in April 2023.

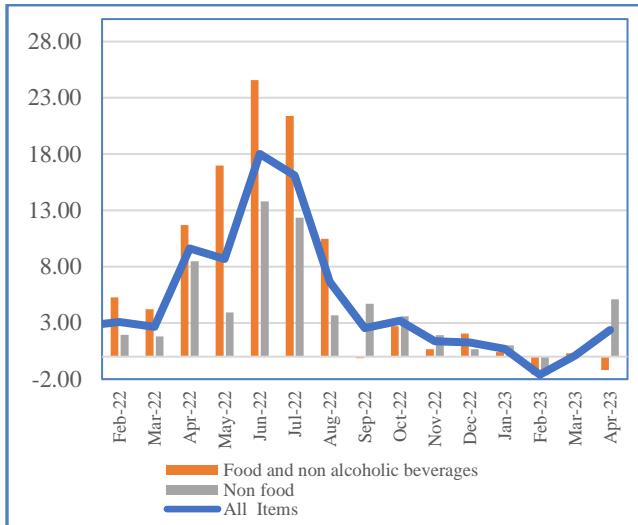

Monthly Inflation

Monthly inflation increased from 0.1% in March 2023 to 2.4% in April 2023, on account of increases in non-food inflation.

Month-on-month food inflation declined from 0.3% in March 2023 to -1.2% in April 2023. Monthly non-food inflation stood at 5.1% in April 2023, up from 0.005% recorded in the preceding month. Monthly non-food inflation was largely driven by housing and energy prices, alcoholic beverages and tobacco, transport and miscellaneous goods and services among other subcategories.

Notes:

- (i) Depository corporations survey - formerly Monetary Survey.
- (ii) Broad money redefined using IMF's Monetary and Financial Statistics Manual of 2000. Major changes include exclusion of Government deposits held by banks from broad money.
- (iii) Transferable deposits made up of demand and savings deposits.
- (iv) NCDs are also referred to as securities included in broad money.
- (v) All classes of time deposits, short and long term are classified as time deposits, which are also termed other deposits.
- (vi) Credit to the private sector now excludes claims on other financial corporations, as well as claims on state and local government (local authorities)
- (vii) Depository corporations made up of the Central Bank and other depository corporations
- (viii) Other depository corporations (ODCs) - Commercial banks, merchant banks, building societies and POSB.
- (ix) In December 2017, the statistics were adjusted in retrospect by reclassifying Securities issued under Afrades from claims on government to claims on central bank
- (x) In December 2017, the statistics were adjusted in retrospect by reclassifying amounts accessed by banks under the Afrades from liabilities to Other Depository corporations and Other Financial Corporations to liabilities to Central Bank
- (xi) In December 2018, statistics were revised from November 2017 due to reclassification of lines of credit (foreign liabilities) that were initially classified as deposits included in broad money
- (xii) All monetary and financial statistics are valued in ZWL$ since the introduction of the interbank foreign exchange market in February 2019
